

Norms of Leave for Teaching and Non-teaching Staff

1. Preamble

Kristu Jayanti College (Autonomous) is a private Christian (Catholic) minority institution established and administered by Bodhi Niketan Trust, CMI Ashram, K Narayanapura, Kothanur PO., Bengaluru- 560 077, Karnataka. The institution strives to provide conducive work environment to its staff through staff welfare measures such as casual leave, on-duty leave, maternity leave, PF, gratuity, pension and other welfare measures specified in the Service Conditions. The norms of leave applicable to the staff are mentioned in this part of the Policy Document of the institution.

2. General Norms of Leave

- 2.1 While leave is the privilege of an employee, it is subjected to the exigencies of work. Hence the management has the discretion to postpone, curtail, refuse or revoke leave according to the exigencies of the situation.
- 2.2 An employee seeking leave shall submit a leave application in the prescribed form before proceeding on leave. He/she shall not proceed on leave unless the said leave has been approved by the authority concerned. Application for leave of more than three days should be made at least 3 days in advance.
- 2.3 In case of an emergency or unfortunate circumstance where an employee may not be able to obtain prior approval of leave, he/she shall immediately contact and inform his/her authority about his/her inability to attend office and the reason for which such leave is required. If the oral communication is accepted by the authority, it should be followed by a written leave request before rejoining the duty.
- 2.4 The maximum days of continuous leave with permission that can be availed by a staff member is 15 days irrespective of any reason thereof. However, if a staff member is admitted in the hospital with a serious health issue, the leave shall be extended up to one month at the discretion of the Management. Availing continuous leave for more than one month shall lead to a service break.
- 2.5 An employee who has taken leave without prior approval of leave for a period of more than 15 consecutive calendar days shall be deemed to have left his/her job on his/her own accord.

- 2.6 No two types of leave can be combined at the same time.
- 2.7 To avoid inconvenience to the students, teaching staff who avail leave shall arrange his/her classes to be conducted by other teachers. The details of arrangements, duly signed, should be submitted along with the leave letter. The staff members have to inform about their leave and arrangements to their reporting authorities in time. The responsibilities and duties of non-teaching staff members shall be entrusted to other staff members when they take leave.
- 2.8 Staff members availing leave without submitting duly signed leave letters or without permission shall be treated as loss of pay.
- 2.9 A Staff member who wishes to travel abroad for personal purposes during the academic year shall take prior permission from the Principal before planning the same.
- 2.10 If a staff member reports 10 minutes late for more than 3 days in a month, it shall be considered as half day leave.
- 2.11 Staff members submitting more than two blue forms for one hour of permission in a month shall also be treated as half-day leave.
It has been amended as “Staff members submitting more than two blue forms for one hour of permission in a month shall also be treated as half-day leave. This provision is applicable only for medical emergencies and Staff members reporting late in the morning due to traffic congestion”.
- 2.12 The staff members have to sign in and sign out at the biometric while reporting to the duty and leaving after the duty.
- 2.13 The staff members leaving the campus in between working hours have to get permission from the authority and have to sign out and in at the biometric at the gate.
- 2.14 If a staff member takes more than one hour break during duty time, coming more than an hour late or leaving more than an hour early shall be treated as half day/full day accordingly.
- 2.15 The principal or his designated person shall be the sanctioning authority of any leave.

3. Casual leave

- 3.1 The Casual leave shall be calculated on the basis of leave taken during the calendar year.

3.2 15 days of casual leave shall be provided for the teaching and the non-teaching staff in a calendar year.

3.3 Staff members having service up to one year in the institution can avail casual leave of maximum 2 working days in a month. Availing leave for more than two working days in a month shall be considered as Leave with Loss of Pay (LoP) including the holidays, if any, during the leave period (e. g: if leave is taken on Jan 21, 23 & 24, Jan 22 being a Sunday, then the LoP shall be calculated for 2 days including Sunday, Jan 22.).

3.4 Staff members having service for more than one year in the institution can avail a maximum of 4 working days as casual leave in a month. Availing leave for more than 4 working days in a month shall be considered as Loss of Pay including the holidays during that period of leave (e.g.: if leave taken from Jan 18 -23, and assuming 22nd Jan is a Sunday, then the LoP shall be for 2 days including Sunday, Jan 22).

3.5 If staff members are taking casual leave along with the institution declared holidays (Second Saturday, annual holidays etc.), it shall be considered as Loss of Pay (e.g.: if leave is taken on January 06 (Friday) or January 09(Monday), it shall be considered as leave with LoP as January 07th is a second Saturday and it is an institution-declared holiday).

3.6 For the Staff members who join newly during an academic year, their leave shall be calculated proportional to their joining month.

3.6 Sick and medical leave shall also be considered casual leave.

3.7 The unavailed casual leave shall not be carried forward to the next calendar year.

4. Maternity Leave

4.1 Lady staff members can avail three months of paid leave during their maternity. However, the maternity leave shall be extended to three more months with LoP.

4.2 The paid leave for maternity shall be applicable to staff only after completion of the probationary period. However, three months of maternity leave can be availed by the lady staff member during the probationary period without pay. Besides, the maternity leave shall be extended to three more months with LoP.

5. Leave for Marriage of Staff Member

5.1 A staff member may avail 10 days of paid leave inclusive of the holidays for his/her marriage.

5.2 Paid leave for marriage can be availed only after the completion of the probationary period. However, during probationary period, Staff members can avail 10 days of leave inclusive of holidays without pay.

6. On-Official Duty Leave (OOD)

Staff members can refer to the Institution's Policy on OOD.

7. Leave related to Ph.D.

7.1 The staff members shall be provided with 3 days of paid leave for the submission of the thesis and Ph.D. viva voce examination.

8. Extraordinary and Emergency Leave

8.1 The Management may sanction an extraordinary leave with loss of pay at its own discretion.

8.2 For leave to be taken during an emergency, the staff member has to request for leave in person/through telephone has to be conveyed to the Principal and approval has to be taken.

8.3 Leave application shall be submitted on or before rejoining the duty

8.4 Norms of casual leave shall be applicable for extraordinary and emergency leaves.

(Version 3.0 2024)

Amendment to clause 2.11 dated 09/09/2024

2.11 Staff members submitting more than two blue forms for one hour of permission in a month shall also be treated as half-day leave.

It has been amended as “Staff members submitting more than two blue forms for one hour of permission in a month shall also be treated as half-day leave. This provision is applicable only for medical emergencies and Staff members reporting late in the morning due to traffic congestion”.